

The Mountain Advocate.

OFFICIAL ORGAN OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY IN KNOX COUNTY

New Series: Vol. VI, No. 48.

BARBOURVILLE, KY., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1916.

$1.00 per Year In Advance

ROADS UP RICHLAND

If you want a real automobile ride, one that will make you proud that you live where we are soon to have the real thing, take a spin up Big Richland. You can go on high speed from the corporate limits to George Jarvis's store without a jolt. Not only that, but you can now go over the route from Barbourville to the Christian church on Middlefork, the DIXIE HIGHWAY as is laid out by the Fiscal Court, and where it will no doubt be built when the matter is finally settled. They have not stopped there, but they have put the road leading from Emanuel to Gray in first-class condition, and you can now make the trip over that route into Corbin with all kinds of ease.

The citizens of that neighborhood have waked up to the fact that they are going to have the official route of the Dixie Highway through that community, and they are making preparations to have the tour of inspectors who will pass through here next month come their way. It is a matter of fact that they will go over the route that is in the best condition, and a committee of these citizens will meet that inspection committee somewhere up the road and pilot them thru that way and over that route. They will have the road in a splendid condition and will insist that they come their way.

There has been much said as to where the road should be built, and the Fiscal Court has given it much study, and the matter has been up before the State Road Commissioner, who has gone over this route. They have taken into consideration where to build the road so that it will cost the least money and serve the most people and they have finally settled down on this route, it surely must be the right way to go. There are eight Justices of the county, and we are told that seven out of the eight have agreed with the State Road Commissioner that this is the feasible way to go and it must be so.

Mayhew.

Col. James Mayhew, who was once police judge of this city, and who moved with his family to the then Territory of Oklahoma, died at his home at Nowatta, Okla., on September 23, and was buried beside his son, Daugh, who died some two years before.

Col. Mayhew was well known to the older people of this city, he having been one of those who saw service in the stormy days of the rebellion, being a strong supporter of the cause of Lincoln.

His son, George W. Mayhew who lives about one mile down the river, received a telegram that his father was dead, but he could not get there in time for his funeral.

Comley-Parker.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the season was that of Miss Sarah J. Parker and Dr. Henry J. Comley. The wedding took place at the home of Mrs. Archibald on Saturday, Sept. 23, 1916, the Rev. L. W. Russell, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, officiating, only the family being present to witness the ceremony. The bride wore a dark blue tailored suit and carried yellow roses. The house was profusely decorated in goldenrod and ferns.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Parker of this county, and is one of Knox county's prettiest and sweetest girls.

The groom is a prominent young dentist of Nicholasville, Ky., and formerly a student of Union College.

Dr. and Mrs. Comley left on the two o'clock train for Louisville.

We wish these young people many happy and prosperous years.

Notice of Filing Petition

On Sept. the 30th 1916, I will file a petition in the Knox County Court, for the establishment of a county road leaving the main road at a point near Cal. Rapiers store and extending through the lands of Evan Lowe, Forester Lowe, John Helton, Marshall Rapiet, Will Lee, and John Profit, to a point at or near Evan Lowes gate.

This 21, day of Sept. 1916.
THOS. HUBBARD,
County Road Engr. K. C.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK PIG WINS FIRST PRIZE

Something like a year ago the First National Bank of Barbourville organized a Boys Pig Club in Knox County and turned over to ten boys, ten pure bred Duroc gilts, free of charge. The pigs from these gilts were turned over to other boys and the membership of the club enlarged. Some of these pigs were entered in the Knox County Fair and took first prize. Two of these pigs were entered in the Boys Pig Club contest at the State Fair at Louisville last week. A large number of pigs from all parts of the State competed, but the first and fourth prizes were awarded to the Knox County pigs. It is quite an honor to Knox County to win first prize in such a contest at the State Fair. Mr. T. F. Faulkner's sons won the first and fourth prizes. It was decided that the First National Bank pig was the best bear pig in the State. These two pigs weighed right at 300 lbs. on the day they were six months old. These pigs are now eligible to enter the American Stock Show at Chicago, and they stand a good show to win there.

This Bank has also introduced a lot of pure bred chickens, and is trying to interest the farmers of the county in spraying their orchards. Knox County can do things when she tries. Our farmers ought to take an interest in these efforts of the Bank. The First National Bank prospers and deserves to do so, because it looks always to the interest of Knox County. Other business institutions would do well to join in this work. Let us work together and build up our county. Help the farmers and you will insure the prosperity of your county.

A New Book Written By a Barbourville Man

Rev. J. W. Ligon, pastor of the Christian Church, is the author of a book entitled "Paul the Apostle." The book is from the press of Fleming H. Revell Company, New York, and retails at one dollar. After reading the book, Lieutenant Governor Jas. D. Black addressed the following letter to the author:

"Barbourville, Ky.,
Sept. 21, 1916.

Rev. John W. Ligon,
Barbourville, Ky.
My dear Doctor:

I have read with fixed interest your book entitled Paul the Apostle.

But before beginning its study, I was somewhat impressed with the thought that something of boldness (here using the word in the sense of commendable confidence) was obvious in the undertaking at this day to contribute a new treatise to the many already written about the Apostle to the Gentiles. I had the notion that the subject had been exhausted.

But the first chapter of your book securely fixed my attention, and I was carried on with increasing interest to the end of the closing chapter. It is most certainly a well written book. It supplies a need many like myself did not know of. The style is attractive, the diction all that one should desire, and in compass and treatment, your book is just what the busy person and the teacher need.

It will surely receive the favorable consideration of those who are interested in the study of the life and character of the great Apostle Paul, and should find a place among the books of every reader and lover of Christian literature.

Very cordially yours,
James D. Black."

P. S. The above mentioned book can be obtained from the author at the regular price of $1.00. A large number have been sold.

Christian Church.

The usual services will be held at the Christian church next Sunday. There will be preaching by the minister both morning and evening. All are cordially invited to attend. There will be some special music.

J. W. Ligon, Minister.

Judge Hammons Issues Warrants.

Last Wednesday Thos. G. Hammons, County Judge, issued forty-three warrants for parents and guardians who have failed to send children of the right age to the public schools in this county. He did this upon information furnished him by the teachers of the county, and it has just begun; you had better get busy, he is going to get you if you do not send your children to school. The laws of the State of Kentucky is very plain, and you will be made to pay the penalty if you fail to get your children into school. So get busy this is a gentle reminder.

Moonlight Schools.

The following persons made Moonlight Schools possible in Knox County, by contributing $100 for the purpose of buying supplies:

J. R. Jones, S. H. Jones, E. W. Roach, J. T. Reddow, H. M. Oldfield, B. B. Golden, J. W. Ligon, H. B. Clark, Alex. Sevier, J. H. Wilson, F. R. Barner, Thos. Cole, W. H. McDonald, W. B. Riley, C. C. Smith, Read P. Black, Charles Black, George Tinsley, W. C. Lockhart, P. D. Black, W. H. Faulkner, R. W. Cole, S. B. Reese, H. B. Coats, Baltimore, M. D., J. M. Robison, R. L. Blakeman, J. A. Lowry, J. F. Catron, Dr. J. E. Faulkner, Dr. J. G. Tye, L. M. Cole, S. M. Perkins, R. M. Stansbury, F. M. Reese, Clair Parrott, J. D. Tuggle, G. W. Hammons, G. B. Detherage, W. M. Ledger, Sam Black, C. B. Wilson, C. Cobb, J. B. Campbell, Dr. Crit Jones, W. P. Lewallen, R. C. Partin, R. N. Jarvis, W. M. Jones, W. R. Evans, J. J. Pursifull, W. R. Marsee, D. M. Humblett, John Turner, Guy Dickenson, J. A. Stansbury, J. T. Morris, Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., A. G. Diney, Will Carns, W. J. Legere, Joseph Smith, Tom J. Slusher, Mat Baker, S. N. Miller, W. J. Campbell, T. J. Moore, Miss Gertrude Black, Miss Sallie Hoskins, Mesdames, Alex. Herndon, Alice Sasser, Robert Cole, James D. Black, W. F. Amis, C. P. Kennedy, L. W. Farmer, W. W. Tinsley, James Miller, Jordan Miller, Geo. Tye, H. Tiffany, T. W. Minton, James Archer, A. W. Hopper, B. C. Lewis, Basset Minton, D. C. Payne, O. C. McChung, J. A. McDermott, W. C. Black, E. B. Dishman, F. D. Sampson.

W. F. Costellow, S. T. Davidson, S. B. Dishman, J. S. Lock, W. R. Lay, W. Burnside, S. T. Steele, E. T. England, C. C. Smith, John Hughes, J. Frank Hawn, William Jones, J. R. Tuggle, H. H. Owens, and the Fiscal Court. Mrs. James D. Black, Chrm., Mrs. R. W. Cole, Asst. Chrm., Mesdames T. W. Minton, W. W. Tinsley and J. R. Tuggle, Com.

Pensions For Widows

All widows of Civil War Soldiers, who have been barred from drawing pensions, by reason of marrying since June 27th, 1890, and who married prior to June 27th, 1905, please write me and mail your husband's pension certificate, or discharges as I can now get you pensions. Also those who have been cut out from drawing on account of remarriage who never have drawn anything and who are now widows, I can also get them pensions. Please write me and send stamp for answer, and only widows of soldiers who were in the war of the rebellion need to write.

Very respectfully,

W. O. B. LIPPS,
Pension Agent
9-29 10-20

Notice of Filing Petition

On Sept. 30th 1916, I will file a petition in the Knox County Court, praying the removal of all gates that is now in use and across the county road that leads from the main road on Fighting Creek and extending through the lands of Kit Grindstaff, Bob Short Hiram Castle, Jim Goodin, Widow Goshen, Isaac Hamilton, Alex. Kinder, Oscar Hardson, Wm. McStewart, and Elizabeth Stewart, and intersecting with the Artemus and Barbourville Road at a point near Wm. McStewarts.

This Sept. 18, 1916
THOS. HUBBARD, County
Road Engr., K. C. 9-22 21.

NOTICE

We are again ready to receive Hickory logs, cut 9 and 12 ft. long, either at our mill in Barbourville, or F.O.B. cars various railroad stations. Those having hickory for sale, see us promptly.
T. W. MINTON & SON.

"A THING OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER"

Now that flower bed in the court house yard has certainly been "A Thing of Beauty," and likewise has been very much enjoyed by all of our citizens, and we will be sorry when Jack Frost comes with his icy fingers and lays it low.

Those beautiful King Humber Cannas were donated by Miss Nola Minton of our town, the bulbs were donated and they were planted by her own hands. Mr. Kennedy giving the rich loam to enrich the bed. We wish there were more Miss Mintons in our town, for besides being a young lady of an unusual amount of energy we believe we judge rightly when we say combined with this energetic nature is a heart possessed of tenderness and love - for well do we know that her beautiful flowers, of which she has an abundance, have found their way into many a home of sickness and bereavement, where they have added rays of brightness to the sad ones. Besides she and her mother have contributed their lovely blossoms to their friends on many festive occasions.

We are proud of such people, and of all like them - people who are possessed of such admirable traits of character should be appreciated, and thrice welcomed to our town.

Let us learn a lesson of Miss Minton, and try to have more Civic pride, planting flowers and trees too, and otherwise improving our already beautiful little town, until strangers coming in will say truthfully, Barbourville is "The Queen City of the Mountains."

We don't wish to forget Mrs. Baker of our town who planted the lovely Chrysanthemums next the court house wall, we all know that Mrs. Baker has lots of Civic pride, for her own yard and premises show that. What a beautiful town we might have, if flowers instead of ugly weeds were growing in all the waste places.

CIVIC LEAGUE.

Miss Pearl Parker who is teaching at Archer, came down Saturday to be present at the wedding of her sister Miss Sarah Parker Dr. H. J. Comley.

J. M. ROBSION,
President.

ROBT. W. COLE,
Cashier.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Barbourville, Kentucky

"The Honor Roll Bank"

This Bank has the money and can and will help its customers when they need help.

OPEN AN ACCOUNT NOW.

Assets More Than $400,000.00

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

W. R. LAY, Acting President. H. B. CLARK, Cashier.

CONFIDENCE

That's the reason why
Our Bank has grown

DEPOSITS: CAPITAL & SURPLUS
August 8, 1912, $177,521.04. $42,000.00
August 8, 1916, $312,653.49. $60,000.00

Open an account with us to-day. We Pay 3 Per Cent on Time Deposits. Fire and burglar proof safety deposit boxes $1.00 per year
THE NATIONAL BANK OF JOHN A. BLACK
JOHN A. BLACK, Pres. JAMES S. MILLER, V. Pres.

WILSON'S PERU PROTEGE IS WORSE THAN HUERTA

Recognized Benavides as President After He Had Obtained Power In a Sister Republic Treachery and Violence.

ACT DOES NOT SQUARE WITH SMUG DICTUM IN HIS SPEECH

Latin American Diplomats Amazed When They Read the President's Explanation of His Mexican Policy—Informed Their Governments That Mr. Wilson's Personal Whims Doubtless Were to Be His Guides in Conducting This Government's Latin American Policy.

Latin American diplomats are amazed at the statement in President Wilson's speech of acceptance: "So long as the power of recognition rests with me, the government of the United States will refuse to extend the hand of welcome to any one who obtains power in a sister republic by treachery and violence."

This is the president's explanation of his refusal to recognize Huerta and of his Mexican policy. Yet the records show that President Wilson has deliberately violated this dictum in several instances since the case of Huerta arose.

The most flagrant example was the president's recognition extended to Colonel Benavides, head of the revolutionary government in Peru, in February, 1914. His government was founded on assassination, established by assassination and had no vestige of constitutional authority back of it. It came into power on Feb. 4, 1914, when Colonel Benavides led the garrison troops against the national palace at Lima, imprisoned President Billinghurst and assassinated the minister of war and all others who opposed the coup d'etat.

More Flagrant Than Mexico.

Minister McMillin reported these facts fully to Washington and assumed that this government would decline to sanction the newly established regime. The case was identical with the Huerta case in Mexico, except a much more flagrant violation of the spirit of popular government. Huerta had Madero and Vice President Suarez imprisoned, but he became president of Mexico under provisions of the constitution providing for the succession of the minister of foreign affairs upon the disability of the president. Huerta's accession to the presidency was confirmed by the Mexican congress.

Benavides came into power simply by killing those who opposed him. His acts had no basis whatever in the constitution of the country and were not confirmed by the Peruvian congress. His sole backing was a junta of conspirators, which forced their will on the unapproving people by means of ready fire bullets. Under these circumstances Minister McMillin naturally assumed that President Wilson would have nothing to do with Benavides and his junta. The president shortly before this had stated in a speech at Mobile, Ala.: "We must follow the course of high principle, not expediency, no matter what the pressure. To do otherwise would be untrue to ourselves."

Envoy Is Surprised.

Mr. McMillin was therefore mildly surprised when he was instructed by President Wilson to call on the newly established Benavides and graciously confer the recognition of the United States Government upon him.

In explaining this the President simply said that "expediency dictated the recognition of the revolutionary government of Peru." He told his advisers that he had not liked the personality of Billinghurst. He was chagrined also with the news that Billinghurst had intended to dissolve the Peruvian congress, which the President said would "be an unconstitutional act."

Latin American Diplomats at the Time

He acted to learn of the President's action in Peru. They found that it was impossible to know where the president stood on any matter of principle and informed their governments that the President's personal whims doubtless were to be his guidance in conducting this government's Latin American policy.

HUGHES ON REUNITED PARTY.

"I come to you as the spokesman of a reunited party. We have said that it was reunited; we have believed it was reunited; we have devoutly hoped it was reunited. Now, Maine proves that it is reunited. I am glad to speak for the reunited Republican party because it is a great liberal party. It started as a liberal party; its best traditions are those of a liberal party. And today it faces the future with a truly national outlook and a progressive spirit."—Charles E. Hughes in a speech delivered at Pittsburgh, N. Y.

IF ELECTION WERE OVER?

While Democrats Are Admittedly the Champion Question Plender, It Is Believed This Quiz Is So Unanswerable as Their Most Childlike Effort.

If election day were passed would President Wilson make so little of the principle of arbitration in industrial disputes? Would he be so sure that it is more important to preserve peace, when a great strike is threatened, than it is to make judicial methods rather than force the means of settling differences between capital and labor?

If election day had come and gone would Mr. Wilson keep the national guardsmen of the country in camp on the ground that they may be needed to protect the United States against Mexico? Would there be months of inaction and indecision in which no use is made of a large body of citizen soldiers? Would they not be allowed to go home or else be set in motion to make Mexico as safe a neighbor as the Administration seems to think that it is already?

If election day were past would the President drive through Congress a bill like the shipping bill which is intended to embark the federal government upon a new venture in a hazardous field and use $50,000,000 of the people's money to buy tonnage held above its normal value or else so owned that it cannot be used without peril of international complications? Is sound public policy behind such a measure or only campaign politics?

If election day were not to be considered would Woodrow Wilson use so many high and mighty words in international notes and do so little to make them mean anything practical? Would his deeds lag so far behind his phrases?—Cleveland Leader.

"HE DIDN'T DO RIGHT."

Independent Voters Turning This Conviction Over and Over in Their Minds and It Will Cost Mr. Wilson Many a Vote.

A Democrat who never voted for a Republican candidate for President except in 1872, when he was forced by the lack of a Democratic nominee to cast his ballot for Horace Greeley, says: "I expect to vote for Woodrow Wilson, but I don't like his course in the railroad dispute. He didn't do right."

The railroad controversy has introduced a novel issue into the campaign. Mr. Wilson sacrificed principle to expediency, or what he judges to be expediency, when he merely surrendered to the demands of the train-service brotherhood.

He put his own personal and party need before the public good. He angled for votes. He aimed a body blow at the tried and tested arbitration method of settling differences.

"God bless you, I cannot," he is said to have explained to the railroad managers, who do not feel as many votes as their employees. But he could have helped them if he had stood impartially between them and the utterly reckless train-service representatives who were bent on their inhuman program.

"He didn't do right." The consciousness of that fact is sinking deep into the American mind.

"He didn't do right." That widespread conviction will cost him thousands of votes on election day.

"He didn't do right." He preferred the weak, the timid attitude of the torn compromiser.

The American people like courage. They like convictions. They like a man who has the courage of his convictions. They like a man who is willing to risk consequences for the sake of a just cause.

It was an unjust cause in which Woodrow Wilson enlisted when he accepted the brotherhood view that the chief men in their demands could not be arbitrated.—Providence Journal.

FIVE THOUSAND A DAY

Enrollment in the Hughes National College League.

The Hughes National College League, 511 Fifth avenue, New York, is receiving enrollments at the rate of five thousand a day. They are coming from all parts of the country, and the work of organizing branches in all states and most of the important cities has been started. A large percentage of the enrollments are from men who give their usual political affiliations as Progressive, Democratic or Independent.

The league has received the endorsement of Governor Hughes, who wired: "If there was ever a time when the educated men of the country who have their welfare at heart should work for right principles and strong government it is now." Chairman Wilcox of the Republican National Committee, ex-President Taft, and John Hays Hammond have also praised the work enthusiastically, as much on the score of the benefit to the men themselves as of the real work it will do to help elect Governor Hughes.

The British censorship is delaying the United States mails almost as annoyingly as Burleson's inefficiency.

"BEATEN GOOD AND PLENTY"

Champ Clark Sees No Rainbows in Maine Result. "We got whipped, and I guess that is all I will say about the Maine election," said Speaker Champ Clark. "We got beaten good and plenty."

DECLINED TO PERMIT A SQUADRON TO DEFEND AMERICANS.

At Tampico there was a general movement of attack by the Mexicans on American and other foreigners. Waded a squadron of American warships in the neighborhood. The Wilson Administration declined to permit this squadron to be used to defend the lives of American men and the honor of American women, and the commanders of the German and English ships at Tampico had to step in and perform the task our representative had so basely abandoned. At the very time that the Mexican mob had surrounded the building in which the Americans had taken refuge and was howling for their blood, the American fleet, in spite of the protests of the American naval commander, and in accordance with wireless orders from Washington, was forced to steam out of the harbor and leave the Americans to be massacred by the Mexicans or rescued by the German and English.—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

At Tampico there was a general movement of attack by the Mexicans on American and other foreigners. Waded a squadron of American warships in the neighborhood. The Wilson Administration declined to permit this squadron to be used to defend the lives of American men and the honor of American women, and the commanders of the German and English ships at Tampico had to step in and perform the task our representative had so basely abandoned. At the very time that the Mexican mob had surrounded the building in which the Americans had taken refuge and was howling for their blood, the American fleet, in spite of the protests of the American naval commander, and in accordance with wireless orders from Washington, was forced to steam out of the harbor and leave the Americans to be massacred by the Mexicans or rescued by the German and English.—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

POLITICAL JOTTINGS

Plans to "get Villa" are abandoned. Villa should resign and refrain from organizing expeditions "to get" American citizens.

The fact that Mr. Wilson could endorse this Pork Congress shows that he isn't so sick, anyway.

Mr. Pinchot also seems of the opinion that God Hates a Quitter.

The man who quotes the Baltimore platform is regarded as a political archeologist.

"He kept the country out of war," but he robbed it of its peace.

Up in Maine they are now rhyiming Hughes with Moose. And there is reason as well as rhyme connecting the two words.

"Victory," Mr. Fairbanks told Oklahoma Republicans, "nearly will perch on our banner." But Champ Clark tied it up in a neater and more compact bundle when he said: "They flicked hell out of us."

Members of President Wilson's cabinet are ready to do anything to re-elect their chief, except resign.

Writes a former Princeton man: "At first we called him 'W. W.'; then we made it 'I. W. W.'"

That one term plank in the Democratic platform of 1912 is more than likely to hold, after all.

When President Wilson called upon the Mexican commissioners at New London he revived old precedents, but did he wave the Stars and Stripes?

A man in Washington thus made a bust of the President, thus immortalizing Mr. Hughes by several weeks.

Discussing the endorsement by the Democratic convention of Texas of Mr. Wilson's Mexican policy, the Houston Post (Dem.) fully declares: "It is not believed anything like a majority of the people of Texas endorse our Mexican policy, and those in a position to know seriously doubt that the platform adopted expressed the real sentiments of the convention itself."

The Omaha Bee couples woeful waste with wasteful wailing as a Democratic fallacy.

Bolled down, the best that has been said of President Wilson's Mexican policy was that he had good intentions. We've often heard of a road paved with this kind of material.

The President is deceived if he believes that the history he has written is not more praiseworthy than that which he has made.

President Wilson signed the Philippine bill as moving picture cameras clicked. There is one man who is so afraid to have his mistakes recorded!

WILSON CONSISTENT ONLY IN HIS VAGILLATION.

As it is with "war," so it is with "intervention." President Wilson has again and again said he would not "intervene" in Mexico. As a matter of fact he has intervened continuously. But as he never followed any policy of either intervention or non-intervention with any resolution—always yielding at the critical moment to some bandit chief of whom he became fearful—both his espousal of intervention and his espousal of non-intervention have alike been entirely futile.—From the speech of Col. Theodore Roosevelt, delivered at Lewiston, Maine, in behalf of Charles E. Hughes.

FINNEGAN'S PHILOSOPHY.

On The Merry-Go-Round.

"Fall in' now Wilson's for protection. Four year ago he was agin it, for it was agin the constychoosun. Now that he is for it, that immortal instrument has also changed its mind. He makes me head swim."

"But I've good company. Bryan an' Garrison, the civil service binnerats, and the vale binnerats, the Passyllists an' the vulgar bows that's none 'Too Proud to Fight'—they've all been on the Merry-go-round. Some is ridin' turned sick."

"God bless ye—ye're a good man, but ye make me dizzy," says Bryan, leppin' from the Hobby-Horse and runnin' for the woods. "I've a giny wine raygrit at last!" ye," says Wudthrow, throwin' him a Coked-Hat in the village of 1909.

"There's the Army bill," says Garrison. "How does it suit?" he axes.

"Fine," says Wudthrow, "barrin' a few changes. 'We'll redraw it,' he says, 'to provide,' says he, 'voluntary universal service in a Federal Militia,' says he, 'controlled by the states,' says he; 'an recruited by spiritual compulsion,' says he. 'It shud be nayther too large nor too small,' says he; 'or maybe both,' he says; 'an the amnyation,' says he, 'must be nayther too much, nor too little,' says he. 'I've to see Hay, before I decide the datyates, for 'tis me jooty to kape an open mind,' says Wudthrow.

"Stop the music and leave me off," says Garrison. "Are ye crazy or am I?" Garrison moans, layin' on his back an' gazin' wildly at the sky. "God bless ye," says Wudthrow. "I've a near real raygrit at last!" ye," says Wudthrow, throwin' him a Coked-Hat in the village of 1909.

"What is the Navy," says Kitchin. "It shud be thair adequate fry-where," says the Great Dilyst, "except in Montana, where we need no Navy," says he, "and in St. Loney, where it shud be the biggest in the world. 'We'll be none extravagant like thine Baypublicans,' says he, 'so here's the binnerat bill ye'll pass,' says he.

"But this same is the Baypublican's bill," says Kitchin sturin'. "We'll go an' pass it," says Wudthrow, poundin' the desk. "Hooney," says the black Baypublican votin' for the bill. "Do I dream," says Kitchin. "If I ever drank, I'd think I was laozed," says Kitchin in a threeshlin' daze. And he falls off.

"How about the Army bill," axes Hay.

"Through an' instant preparation for defense must be the word," says Wudthrow, wid heroic riskation in his eye.

"I have here a bill," says Hay, "providin' for an increase in five hundred men a year for twenty year," he says; "an' amnyshun for six hours' ackum," he says; "I'll make us safe from maddygasker, meases, bunkrakin', mill-rism and mortal infidility," he says; "an' we'll catch Villa before he dies av he doant die afore we catch him," says Hay.

"Embrace me," says Wilson. "Oh Hay—after all preparationness is a matter of the heart an' not of guns or forts. Did Cleveland give ye a job? he axes, stoppin' short like.

"Divil a wan," says Hay. "Thin," says Wudthrow shakin' the both in Hay's hands cordial like, "for yer patriotic service in so bravely supportin' me pollees," he says, "in all their phases," he says; "I make a Judge iv ye," he says; he, "as well as yer friad that ye put in the Joker," says the President. "Howly Saints," says the preparation Sultors.

"Pikewhat does this mean at all at all?" they axes. "I've the wan thrack mind," says the President, "an' ye go all through me train iv thought before ye come to the pork cut," says he. "Are ye on?" axes the Apostle iv Common Councils.

"We're on," says the Shiltors, fallin' off. An' the Merry-go-round plays a Wilson Waltz (which ye know, Dawn, is wan step forward, two steps back, hesitate and sidestep). An' Thumity goes off, to spread the glad tidin's that the preparation pride will be led by the President in person.

"How does he save his face?" asked Mainmphy.

"Wid his mouth," responded Finnegan dryly.

OH YOU JOSEPHUS!

This is a free advertisement for "Life," issue of September 14.

If you want to find a reflection of your own inward opinion of the present amiable, inconsequential and befuddling Secretary of the Navy, here 'tis; for "Life" dedicates an entire issue to our own officious, omniscient, ontological, oleaginous, obligarchical Sir Joe-sea-fuss!

Incompetent-Saa. Inefficient-Saa. Idiosyncratic-Saa. Inedacious-Saa. Delinquent-Saa. Imparmanent-Saa. Hypocrite-Saa.

Also, with a mild to the juice that has made our State and Navy Departments famous, "Life" proposes this toast: "Gracie Nuts! Bryan and Daniels!" He Jacet!

Of the 38 electors who cast Pennsylvania's vote for Roosevelt in 1912, 25 are living and 27 of them have pledged, untiedly, their support to Mr. Hughes.

The President must be credited with having just a slick one over if he can get the votes and make the people pay the freight.

A CONTEST OF CHARACTER, NOT OF WEASEL WORDS

Cardinal Question In This Campaign Is Whether the People Want in the White House a Phrase Maker or a Man Who Backs Words With Deeds.

Woodrow Wilson excels in the artistry of politics beyond the capacity of Charles Evans Hughes to compete. Were the current campaign a game of professional politics instead of a contest of character between two candidates for the highest office in the gift of the people Mr. Wilson could walk away with the prize next November.

All his life he has made a study of form—first of literary form—and later of political form. In the first period he mastered a style peculiarly his own and peculiarly characteristic. The study of words and their multiplicity of meaning always fascinates him, so much that a Princeton classmate recently said of him, "Tony has lived with words so long he thinks they are real things." Thence comes his collection of what Theodore Roosevelt's Maine guide calls "weasel words." That is—"he can take a word and weasel it around and suck the meaning out of it like a weasel sucks an egg, until it don't mean anything at all, no matter what it sounds like it means." Thence came also the series of catch phrases, so fascinating in sound, so false in suggestion; so easy to read, so hard to understand. So it is that he is able to be on all sides of every public question while covering his circuitous course with a flow of words that roll as easily from his pen as a brook through the meadow. It is his artfulness in the use of words that enables him to pose as "an amateur in politics" while playing the game with the skill of a professional. Whatever his inaptitude in other respects, he is easily first among presidents in the artistry of politics, and he would win next November were that the test.

Compare the willingness of Mr. Wilson with the straightforwardness of Mr. Hughes. Compare the smooth style of the one with the rugged diction of the other. The one is as complex in the use of words as the other is simple. It is a case of smoothness versus strength. Mr. Hughes is depending upon the strategy of straightforwardness and the strength of diction.

Force of facts instead of a flow of words, to win his case before the jury of the nation. His appeal is to the head and not the ear of the people; to their intelligence and not to their emotion; to their heroic side and not to their hysterical side. It is an appeal to the courage of the country and not to its cowardice. Mr. Hughes could not if he would perform in a year the political tricks that Mr. Wilson can do in a day. The question to day is whether the people want in the White House for the next four years a phrase maker or a history maker, a man of many sayings or a man who backs his words with deeds. There is a fundamental difference between the two candidates which marks the line of cleavage in this extraordinary campaign—"Hughes means what he says."

LABOR VOTE NOT DELIVERABLE

This Is the Outstanding Fact Which Political Philosophers Deduce From the Defeat in Maine of Representative McGillicuddy.

From among the numerous lessons or conclusions which the political philosophers can draw from the Maine election one lesson or conclusion stands out more sharply defined than any other. It jumps at you.

The labor vote, for the sake of which the Poltroon Congress tarred and feathered itself with its own hands only a dozen days ago, is not deliverable by traders who pretended to sell it.

This salient fact of the election is illustrated conspicuously in the Second Congress district. There are few places within the confines of our republic where labor is relatively stronger than in the city of Lewiston, the home city of Representative McGillicuddy, and he has made a specialty of it in his own political practice. In the Second Maine, if anywhere, would there be indications of any return, in the shape of votes, for the surrender of Congress to the four Brotherhoods. After a campaign which might almost be called desperate in its effort to save McGillicuddy and one Democratic seat in the House from the Republican onset, Mr. McGillicuddy was defeated by an adverse plurality of nearly 40, whereas he had been elected to the Sixty-second Congress by a plurality of 1,539 and to the Sixty-third by 1,281.

IDEALS OF THE SUCCESS OF THE PLAIN PEOPLE.

"If I did not believe that the Republican party was the party of true progress, which was prepared under its leadership to take the country along the way of adaptation to new needs and exigencies of the future, I should have no pride in representing it. But the party of Lincoln, I reaffirm today, and we consecrate it to the ideals of Lincoln, and those ideals are permanent. These are the ideals of the success of the plain people. They are the ideals of the achievements under free institutions, of success in all the activities of the co-operative energy of the plain people."—Charles E. Hughes in a speech delivered at Pittsburgh, N. Y.

Wabbling Woodrow.

Opportunism has claimed that every statesman must respect. But never has there been an opportunist in the White House of greater willingness to change than the present incumbent. The country feared it had placed power in the hands of a doctrinaire schoolmaster incapable of bending. It finds that it has a man of remarkable pliancy of judgment, who one moment stands for states' rights and the next for nationalism, who one day is a pacifist, and the next is out-shouting Col. Roosevelt for arms and ships, who one week is for a barren neutrality and the next for war in behalf of general righteousness, who one night is for collective wage bargaining and arbitration of industrial disputes and the next is waving the flag of decreasing wages up or down as the votes of the larger number can be controlled.—New York Globe and Commercial Advertiser.

Gen. Pershing's Army to Move to San Antonio.

San Antonio. "It for a fight or a frolic." To the credit let it be said it went on for

WHAT HUGHES WOULD HAVE LEFT UNDONE

That Is Campaign's True Angle and Not the Trite Question With Which Hecklers Are Nagging the Republican Standard Bearer.

ACHIEVEMENTS ASSURANCE—BLUNDERING IS NO HABIT

Winning Democrats Trying to Run Away From the Record of the Administration and to Inveigle the Voters Down Rhetorical Bypaths, All in the Thinly-Disguised Effort to Change the Subject.

When Mr. Hughes criticizes the record of the Administration the spokesmen of Mr. Wilson cry: "What would you have done?" They forget that it is Mr. Wilson and not Mr. Hughes who is on trial. They forget that four years ago Mr. Wilson criticised Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt throughout the campaign and that Mr. Taft and Mr. Roosevelt defended their respective records, instead of crying, "What would you have done?" They forget these things or they refuse to confess them. They are trying to run away from the record of the Administration and induce the people to follow them down some bypath of rhetorical hypothesis, all in the effort to change the subject.

"By their fruits ye shall know them." When Mr. Hughes was Governor of New York he did not pay political debts by filling the public offices with unit men. He did not champion certain principles during his campaign and repudiate them after he entered office. As Governor, he did not resort to brave and beautiful words as a substitute for firm and consistent deeds. He was careful in his use of words, but he backed his words with deeds. He did not promise what he could not perform. He did not plaster the people with compliments they did not deserve. He was not a rhetorician, he was not a flatterer, he was not "too proud to fight" for labor or for capital, for the strong or the weak, when the right was on their side.

Mr. Wilson's spokesmen seek to divert attention from the attacks Mr. Hughes is making upon the record of the Administration by asking him, "What would you do?" They are unconsciously helping Mr. Hughes. They are recalling to the memory of the people the record he made throughout his two terms as Governor of New York. It was then that he first said "public office shall not be a private shop under my administration," and made performance square with promise. There is this about Mr. Hughes that makes him so different from Mr. Wilson: "Hughes means what he says." So it is that the campaign is really a contest of character between two men, with sincerity as the differentiating and deciding factor.

FIERY WORDS.

"Direct violations of a nation's sovereignty cannot await vindication in suits for damages. The nation which violates these essential rights must be checked and called to account by direct challenge and resistance."—From Woodrow Wilson's Speech Accepting the Democratic Nomination For Presidency.

BUT—The American flag is still unsaluted at Vera Cruz.

Villa is still uncaptured and unpunished.

Carranza still slaps the United States.

There still has been no accounting for American lives and property destroyed in Mexico.

The whole question of reparation for invasion of American rights by various warring nations is still sleeping in a pigeonhole.

AND—All the "direct challenge and resistance" noticeable to the average American is included in a series of notes said to possess high literary quality, if nothing else in particular.

Wabbling Woodrow.

Opportunism has claimed that every statesman must respect. But never has there been an opportunist in the White House of greater willingness to change than the present incumbent. The country feared it had placed power in the hands of a doctrinaire schoolmaster incapable of bending. It finds that it has a man of remarkable pliancy of judgment, who one moment stands for states' rights and the next for nationalism, who one day is a pacifist, and the next is out-shouting Col. Roosevelt for arms and ships, who one week is for a barren neutrality and the next for war in behalf of general righteousness, who one night is for collective wage bargaining and arbitration of industrial disputes and the next is waving the flag of decreasing wages up or down as the votes of the larger number can be controlled.—New York Globe and Commercial Advertiser.

Gen. Pershing's Army to Move to San Antonio.

San Antonio. "It for a fight or a frolic." To the credit let it be said it went on for Four Times Around The Earth.

If all the coffee made by the users of Arbuckle Brothers Coffee, was served at one time, and the cups and saucers were set side by side touching each other they would span the earth four times.

This is the largest firm in the world selling package coffee. They are not incorporated. The business was started more than 55 years ago, by John and Phil Arbuckle, and is owned today by three of their descendants. They have their own ships with which to bring their coffee from Mexico and they buy 60% of the entire output of that country. They buy 75% of the production of Brazil. They own 14 city squares in New York City. They were the first people in the United States to roast and package coffee.

They are represented in this territory by Mr. W. H. Green, who has represented them for the last twelve months, at the time he began to sell coffee there were in this city 24 stores that handled coffee, but only four of them sold Arbuckle's. Now Arbuckle's coffee is sold in 23 of them. Mr. Green is 14 counties over which he travels, nine in Kentucky and five in the State of Tennessee.

Mr. Green is one of our own boys; he came to this town 18 years ago and entered school; he, after that, taught in the County Schools. He was one of the first to answer the call for volunteers in the Spanish-American War, serving with the First Kentucky Cavalry. He has held the office of Post Master in this city and was, for three years, Asst. Labor Inspector under Gov. Wilson.

He is a tireless worker and always makes good. He is known all over the State as a "hustler." Arbuckle Bros. always get the best to represent them; that is the secret of their great success.

Strayed or Stolen

Large Pointer Bird Dog, white with liver spots, small growth on hip, last seen at Jarvis Store. Notify this office and receive a reward.

Announcing A Mid-Year Model Combining the Best 257 Show Models

Mitchell
$1325

Six cylinder, high power, high-speed motor—127-inch wheelbase. Anti-skid tires on rear. Complete modern equipment, including motor-driven tire pump.

$1325 f. o. b. Racine
Touring Car or 3 Passenger
Roadster.

$1450 f. o. b. Racine
for New 7 Passenger
Mitchell Eight.

Mitchell-Lewis Motor Company, Racine, Wis. U. S. A.

For sale in Knox, Bell, Harlan, Whitley, & Laurel counties, by V. C. McDonald, Barbourville, Ky.

How to Give Good Advice

The best way to give good advice is to set a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and enjoys an excellent reputation. Obtainable everywhere.

STOP AT THE GALT HOUSE WHEN IN LOUISVILLE European Plan

Good Rooms for $1 Per Day

Fine Dining Room with Excellent Service and Low Prices. Free Auto-Bus Meets
Trains Turkish and Electric Baths.

WRITE FOR RESERVATIONS

NOTICE!

TO ALL ROAD OVERSEERS AND ROAD HANDS:

The First week in October is the time to put the County roads in condition for Winter. This must be done, and you are hereby notified to warn out your men the first and second weeks in October and put the roads in good condition by ditching, dreading, filling over brush, placing culverts and removing any and all obstructions from the county roads. Those who fail to do this will be reported to the Grand Jury at its November term. This includes all the roads in the county.

On October the 16th a tour of Dixie Highway Commissioners will leave Cincinnati with one hundred and fifty or two hundred cars and trucks and will be through Knox County the 17th of October. The road from Corbin to Barbourville by the way of Place, Gray, Roseland, Tunnel Hill, Emanuel, Bailey's Switch and to Barbourville should be put in good condition, and from Barbourville to the Bell county line by the way of Artemus, Himyar, Old Flat Lick, Flat Lick, Elys and to the Bell line. The overseers, citizens and tax payers of the county should be deeply interested in having the road from Corbin to the Bell line in splendid shape for this tour. On that date the business men of the North and South, together with all the officers of the Dixie Highway Commission wants to pass through our county; let's help them thru; it means something in the near future and it means it for us. They want the Dixie Highway through this Eystern route—we want it too. Let's everybody along the line come out, regardless of whether he is too old or too young. Bring your teams and tools and let's show the world and them that we want them to come.

Respectfully,

THOMAS G. HAMMONS,

County Judge,

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the torture of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system. To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength. Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS.

If you had two dollars to invest would you trust it in the business sagacity of Josephus Daniels? Then, why let him handle the millions that are to be spent on the new navy?

Judging by the signs of War Department activity the Administration is clumsily arranging to bring the millionaires home just in time to enable them to vote for Mr. Hughes.

A train of thought on a one-track mind has to be composed of shuttle cars.

Three years ago Woodrow Wilson was explaining that hard times were psychological, but he isn't trying to squirm out of responsibility for the present prosperity.

The disaster to the Memphis caused very little excitement, Americans being used nowadays to seeing the navy on the rocks.

This Democratic Congress has passed into history—profane history.

President Wilson's speech of acceptance could have been phrased even more succinctly in the graphic words of Boss Tweed, "What are you going to do about it?"

We see by the interviews with the Mexican commissioners that the campaign slogan this year in the Sonora bandit belt is "Thank God for Woodrow Wilson."

Mr. Wilson's eulogy of Lincoln at Hodgenville was more literary but less sincere than the one he pronounced upon himself at Shadow Lawn.

The new half dollars will have an olive branch on one side and on the other an eagle, to full flight. Wilson money.

Motto of the McAdoo shipping law: "The sun never rises on the American flag."

A Democrat's idea of an ideal watch dog of the Treasury is a Pommeranian.

Mr. Wilson is now busily engaged working the other side of the suffrage street.

The campaign agents who two years ago were busily engaged thanking God for Woodrow Wilson seem to be taking their vacations just now.

A record wasn't the only thing the late Congress broke—there's the Federal Treasury.

Congress didn't want a Taft Commission, composed of $12,000 men, those $7,500 salaries being designed for $1,200 men.

President Wilson's scheme for commissions for everything has been audaciously planned to make three jobs for deserving Democrats grow where only one would grow before.

Vice-President Marshall says Mr. Hughes is an echo of the past. Quite true. Of statesmanship, of patriotic performance and sane legislation.

Worn Out?

No doubt you are, if you suffer from any of the numerous ailments to which women are subject. Headache, backache, dizziness, nervousness, weak, tired feeling, are some of the symptoms, and you must rid yourself of them in order to feel well. Thousands of women, who have been benefited by this remedy, urge you to

TAKE

Cardui
The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Sylvia Woods, of Clinton Mills, Ky., says: "Before taking Cardui, I was, at times, so weak I could hardly walk, and the pain in my back and head nearly killed me. After taking three bottles of Cardui, the pains disappeared. Now I feel as well as ever. Every suffering woman should try Cardui." Get a bottle today.

Driving the brain starts the pain

Over-work, worry and the constant strain of a business life are often a cause of much trouble.

Dr. Miles' Nervine is highly recommended for all Nervous disorders. It is particularly invaluable to business women. Regulate your bowels by using

DR. MILES' LIVER PILLS

IF FIRST BOTTLE, OR BOX, FAILS TO BENEFIT YOU, YOUR MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED.

NERVOUS ATTACKS.
"I suffered with nervous attacks and headaches. When my liver got out of order and it seemed as though my whole system was upset, I commenced using Dr. Miles' Nervine and also took Dr. Miles' Liver Pills and now I feel perfectly well in every respect. My bowels also are in good shape now."
MRS. AUGUSTA B. BAKER,
1149 Park St., Boston, U. S. A.

District Court of the United States, Eastern District of Kentucky.

United States Marshall's Sale.

By virtue of execution No. 227, directed to me, which issued from the clerk's office of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, in favor of the United States, I or one of my deputies will on the 22nd day of October, 1916, that being the October term of the Knox County Court, between the hours of one o'clock P. M. and three o'clock P. M. at the Court House door in Barbourville, Knox County, Kentucky, expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder the following real estate, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the plaintiff's debt, interest and cost. To-wit: One town lot in Barbourville, Kentucky.

Beginning at junction of the streets running towards Richland creek from the Public Square at a stake, thence Northward with the Public square 30 feet to the corner of William Phipps lot, now S. S. Sawyers, thence with the line of said Phipps lot now Sawyer's lot, back 60 feet to a stone at the line of H. H. Steele's lot now owned by Mrs. T. J. Hale; thence with the said line of Steele lot 30 feet to the aforesaid street; thence 60 feet to the beginning and being the same lot conveyed by L. H. Jarvis and wife to Thos. G. Hammons by deed of Nov. 27, 1914, and being the same lot conveyed by H. L. Hutton and wife to L. H. Jarvis by deed dated August 6th, 1900, and recorded in the clerk's office of the Knox County Court in Deed Book No. 1, page 138.

Said lot is levied upon as the property of Thomas G. Hammons. The aforesaid lot will be sold subject to a purchase money lien in favor of L. H. Jarvis, amounting to $573.89.

TERMS: Sale will be made for cash in hand. The amount to be realized by this sale is $105.50 together with the cost of levy and sale together with the penalty.

This Sept. 2ND, A. D. 1916.
R. C. FORD, United States Marshall for the Eastern Dist. Ky., by H. N. Jones, D. M.

WARNING-DANGER

All persons are hereby warned, that any wire, either telephone or electric light wire, which may become broken, and fall into the streets, walks or anywhere within the city of Barbourville, is dangerous. We caution all persons not to touch or come in contact with any such wires, but if any are found, notify the Barbourville Electric Light Heat & Power Co. at once.—Barbourville Electric Light Heat & Power Co. By A. D. Smith, Gen. Mgr.

Professional Cards

A. L. PARKER DENTIST

Office: second floor Parker Bldg.
Phones: Office 36, Res. 96.
Barbourville, Kentucky

J. E. FAULKNER DENTIST

Office: Knox St., over store of T. E. Faulkner & Co.
Barbourville, Kentucky

R. N. JARVIS LAWYER

Office with J. M. Robison, over First National Bank
Barbourville, Kentucky

J. M. ROBISON LAWYER

Office over First National Bank
Barbourville, Kentucky

J. T. STAMPER LAWYER

Special Attention to the Collection of Claims
Barbourville, Kentucky

Is your property Insured?

W. R. LAY

Can Give You Protection From Loss By FIRE and TORNADO.
Office, Lawson Building
BARBOURVILLE, KENTUCKY

SOL T. STEELE LAWYER

Barbourville, Kentucky

L & N TIME TABLE

NORTH BOUND

No. 12 Daily, except Sundays..... 1:52 p. m.
No. 22 Daily, due..... 10:18 a. m.
No. 21 Daily, due..... 11:42 p. m.

SOUTH BOUND

No. 11 Daily, except Sundays..... 6:13 a. m.
No. 24 Daily, due..... 3:38 a. m.
No. 23 Daily, due..... 4:10 p. m.

Street car leaves Hotel Jones, 20 minutes before schedule time for trains.

Cumberland R. R. Company

TIME TABLE

South Bound

TRAINS—
No. 3, Lve. Artemus 10:30 a. m.
No. 5, Lve. Artemus 4:40 p. m.
No. 35, Lve. " Sundays 7:30 a. m.
No. 37, Lve. " Sundays 4:30 p. m.

North Bound

No. 4, Arr. Artemus 1:20 p. m.
No. 6, Arr. Artemus 6:45 p. m.
No. 36, Arr. " Sunday 9:40 a. m.
No. 38, Arr. " Sunday 6:45 p. m.
W. B. STARKIE, Gen. Pass. Agt.
T. H. Hayden, Gen. Mgr.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO
New York

Barbourville
Furniture Company.
Barbourville, Ky.

IMPORTANCE OF HEALTHY KIDNEY

Barbourville Readers Should Learn to Keep the Kidneys Well

The kidneys have big work to do. All the blood in the body is coursing through the kidneys constantly to be freed of poisonous matter. It is a heavy task when the kidneys are weak, but a cold, chills, fever or some thoughtless exposure is likely to irritate, inflame and congest the kidneys and corrupt the purifying work.

Then the aching frequently begins, and is often accompanied by some irregularity of the urines—too frequent, too scanty, sediment or retention. It is a warning to the wonderment of Dr. Williams' Kidney Pills, a remedy for the kidneys only, that has been used in kidney trouble for years. You will make no mistake in following this advice, it comes from a resident of the locality.

Mrs. Sallie B. 102 Lancaster Ave., Middlebrook, Ky., says: "A relative suffered from diabetes, spells and weakness until the patient's health was run down. The kidney secretions were also a source of torment. Dr. Williams' Kidney Pills immediately cured the sufferer. I have used Dr. Williams' Kidney Pills myself and have been benefited. No other medicine could possibly do better work."

Price 50c. at all druggists. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Dr. Williams' Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. W. H. Foster, Milburn, Col., says: "Barbar, N. Y."

Tedders News

Millard Jarvis of Jarvis Store in engaged in making some in our town this week.

Tom Jarvis is out through our town last Sunday morning, but breakfast on the table of Black Water.

Chas. Parrott and daughter, Nollie were in Barbourville this week.

Miss Sadie Brown of Crab Orchard was here visiting her sister, Mrs. L. C. Tedders last week.

John Hoskins and family of Crab Orchard, moved to our town last week.

The girls of this town are doing in a supply of crocheted work for future use.

Mrs. Martha Smallwood, Miss Miss Pearl Lewis and sister Mattie, are the pleasant guests of Mrs. J. C. Lewis this week.

Mrs. Lucy Parrott and daughter Nollie, and her niece, Edith Woodlum visited relatives on Black Water Sunday.

BORN To the wife of John Perry, a bouncing boy. We think for deserves a present as he is the father of fifteen living children.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cobb have moved to Black Water.

Misses Lizzie and Matilda Shepard attended church at Mt. Aarat Sunday.

Mr. Whitley Taylor and Miss Alcie Hucker passed through our town Sunday enroute to Robinson church.

I. M. Jarvis and S. J. Woolhan are working for the C. & M. Railroad Company.

Ambros Cobb had a fine pig gone astray.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

This is a medicine that every family should be provided with. Colic and diarrhoea often come on suddenly and it is of the greatest importance that they be treated promptly. Consider the suffering that must be endured until a physician arrives or medicine can be obtained. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has a reputation second to none for the quick relief which it affords. Obtainable everywhere.

Knox County Court, August 28, 1916.

1. C. Bryant & Co. JUDGMENT FOR VOTE ON Knox County Court STOCK LAW.

Petition of I. C. Bryant and more than 20 other legal voters of Corbin, Precinct No. 12, in Knox county, Ky., has been filed in the Knox County Court on August 25, 1916, asking the court to order an election to be held in said precinct No. 12, in said county and state at the regular November Election, 1916, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct as to whether or not they are in favor of making it unlawful for hogs, sheep and goats to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands in said voting precinct No. 12, Corbin, in Knox county, Kentucky. Yes or no.

Said petition having been duly considered by the court and being advised, it is now ordered that S. L. Lewis Sheriff of Knox county, open a poll at the next regular November Election, 1916, in voting precinct No. 12, Corbin, Ky., to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct as to whether they are in favor of making it unlawful for hogs, sheep and goats to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands in Precinct No. 12, Corbin, Knox county, Ky., and the County Court Clerk will have put upon the ballots of said precinct the question: "Are you in favor of making it unlawful for hogs, sheep and goats to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands in said voting precinct No. 12, Corbin, in Knox county, Kentucky. Yes or no."

A copy attested:
READ P. BLACK,
Clerk Knox Co. Court.

Are You Looking Old?

Old age is not enough. You look old because of your laxative and your bowels. Keep your bowels regular and your liver healthy and you will not only feel younger but look younger. When troubled with constipation or biliousness take Chamberlain's Tablets. They are attended especially for these ailments and are excellent. Easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Obtainable everywhere.

Knox County Court, August Term, 1916.

Andrew Smith & Co. JUDGMENT FOR VOTE ON Knox County Court STOCK LAW.

Petition of Andrew Smith and more than 20 other legal voters and residents of Road Fork voting precinct No. 8 in Knox county, Ky., having been filed in Knox County Court August 25, 1916, and duly docketed in said court at the regular August term, 1916, asking the court to order an election to be held in said voting precinct No. 8, in said county and state at the regular November Election, 1916, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct as to whether they are in favor of making it unlawful for cattle of any species to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands in said voting precinct No. 8, Road Fork, Knox county.

Said petition having been duly considered by the court and being advised, it is now ordered that S. L. Lewis, Sheriff of Knox county, open a poll at the next regular November Election, 1916, in the voting precinct No. 8, Road Fork, Knox county, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct as to whether they are in favor of making it unlawful for cattle of any species to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands of said precinct No. 8, Road Fork, Knox county, Ky., and the County Court Clerk will have put upon the ballots for said precinct the question:

"Are you in favor of making it unlawful for cattle of any species to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands of said voting precinct No. 8, Road Fork, Knox county, Ky. Yes or no."

A copy attested:
READ P. BLACK,
Clerk Knox Co. Court.
9-20 16-20

Knox County Court, August Term, 1916.

C. B. Donaldson & Co. JUDGMENT FOR VOTE ON Knox County Court STOCK LAW.

Petition of C. B. Donaldson and more than 20 other legal voters of Gray, Precinct No. 11, in Knox county, Ky., having been filed in the Knox County Court on August 28, 1916, and duly docketed in said court at the regular August term, 1916, asking the court to order an election to be held in said voting precinct No. 11, in said county and state at the regular November Election, 1916, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct as to whether they are in favor of making it unlawful for hogs, sheep and goats to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands of said voting precinct No. 11, Gray, Knox county.

Said petition having been duly considered by the court and being advised, it is now ordered that S. L. Lewis Sheriff of Knox county, open a poll at the next regular November Election, in voting precinct No. 11, Gray, Knox county, to take the sense of the legal voters of said precinct as to whether or not they are in favor of making it unlawful for hogs, sheep and goats to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands in Precinct No. 11, Gray, Knox county, Ky., and the County Court Clerk will have put upon the ballots of said precinct the question: "Are you in favor of making it unlawful for hogs, sheep and goats to run at large on the public highways and uninclosed lands in said voting precinct No. 11, Gray, Knox county, Ky. Yes or no."

A copy attested:
READ P. BLACK,
Clerk Knox Co. Court.

Notice of Filing Petition

On Sept. 30th 1916, I will file a petition in the Knox County Court praying a change of location of road on the section of road leading from the Goose Creek road up Paynes Creek to the forks of the road near Henry Paynes. Said change to leave the present road at a point at or near L. Gray's garden and extend around the hill through the lands of L. Gray and intersecting with the present road at Robt. Hammon's Spring.

This Sept. 18th 1916.
THOS. HUBBARD, County Road Engineer, K. C. 9-22 21

Constipation the Father of Many Ills

Of the numerous ills that afflict humanity a large share start with constipation. Keep your bowels regular and they may be avoided. When a laxative is needed take Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion. Obtainable everywhere.

For Sale.

I have for sale a complete outfit for drummers, consisting of two fine young horses, one four years old and the other five years old; a good wagon, fitted for the business of carrying drummer trunks, with good spring seat for the driver and a man; good harness, and everything complete. I will sell for cash or will take a good note that is bankable. Call on, or address, The Mountain Advocate or at The Little Shop.

TAMPIGO SCUTTLE A CAPTAIN AFFAIR, SAYS ROOSEVELT

Can't So Grave an Offense
Against the Nation's Honor and Duty That the Man
Who Should Be Dismissed From Office.

WILSON CANNOT SHIELD HIMSELF BEHIND DANIELS

Admiral May's Protest That Americans in Foreign Service Deserted by Their Own Government Against the Protest of the Naval Officer Present at the Time of the Disgraceful Episode in the History of Our Country.

Admiral May, in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, has stated that he had full knowledge of the situation through the protest of the naval officer present. The protest of the naval officer present, Admiral May, sent the navy department on April 13, 1916, and also gave the navy department on April 20, 1916, a protest to proceed to the loss of life.

Admiral May, in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, has stated that he had full knowledge of the situation through the protest of the naval officer present. The protest of the naval officer present, Admiral May, sent the navy department on April 13, 1916, and also gave the navy department on April 20, 1916, a protest to proceed to the loss of life.

Hide Behind Daniels.

Admiral May, in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, has stated that he had full knowledge of the situation through the protest of the naval officer present. The protest of the naval officer present, Admiral May, sent the navy department on April 13, 1916, and also gave the navy department on April 20, 1916, a protest to proceed to the loss of life.

Made Public in U. S.

Admiral May, in a letter to the Secretary of the Navy, has stated that he had full knowledge of the situation through the protest of the naval officer present. The protest of the naval officer present, Admiral May, sent the navy department on April 13, 1916, and also gave the navy department on April 20, 1916, a protest to proceed to the loss of life.

The Soldier Vote.

A significant feature following the Maine election was the nature of the soldier vote. It is reported that one Maine battalion voted sixty times in two days for the purpose of exercising the franchise. And we know how they voted!

Early politeness is proverbial, but these Mexican commissioners exercised the right when they pointed to the wooden Wilson to General Carranza?

How Daniels might have made a possible secretary of the Salvator Navy, but it was pretty rough to dump him on Uncle Sam's fighting navy.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

have solved our roof problem. We are through with leaks and repairs and our house is improved in appearance!

THE STORMPROOF ROOF.

For Sale by

J. H. BLACKBURN, Barbourville, Kentucky.

REGISTRATION DAY October 3, 1916

is Registration Day for all male persons who live in the City, who may want to vote in the November Election, or in the Primary Election, 1917.

All female voters having the qualification of a woman voter will be required to register in order that they may have the right to vote in the Superintendent's race in the Primary of 1917.

The Polls will be open in the various wards of the Cities of Barbourville and Corbin from 6:00 A. M. until 9:00 P. M. on said date.

This registration will hold good for one year--from October 3, 1916, to October 2, 1917.

Given under my hand as Clerk of the Knox County Court, this September 22, 1916.

R. P. BLACK, K. C. C.

HERE IS A GOOD PLACE TO STOP FOR LITTLE MONEY. LOUISVILLE HOTEL, Louisville, Ky. Main St., bet. 6th & 7th

Only hotel in Louisville operated on the American & European plans

AMERICAN PLAN
(With Meals) Rooms without Bath but with hot and cold water.
75 Rooms - single, $2.00 per day; 2 people, $2.00 each
50 Rooms - single, 2.50 per day; 2 people, 2.25 each
50 Front Rooms, 3.00 per day; 2 people, 2.50 each

EUROPEAN PLAN
(Without Meals) Rooms without Bath but with hot & cold water
75 Rooms - single, $1.00 per day; 2 people, $0.75 each
50 Rooms - single, 1.25 per day; 2 people, 1.00 each
50 Front Rooms, 1.50 per day; 2 people, 1.25 each
Rooms with Private Bath:
50 Rooms - single, 1.50 per day; 2 people, 1.25 each
50 Rooms - 2.00 per day; 2 people, 1.50 each

THE OLD INN, Louisville, Ky., Cor. Sixth and Main Sts., European Plan Only

Rooms Without Bath, $1.00 and up;
Rooms With Private Bath, $1.50 and up.

BEST EATING PLACE IN TOWN.

The Louisville Hotel and the Old Inn are located in the wholesale district and only a three-block's walk to the retail district and theatres.

Louisville Hotel and Old Inn Co., Props.

J. A. McDERMOTT & CO. CAN SAVE YOU MONEY

On Barbed Wire, Woven Wire Fencing, Paints, Roofing of every description, Lehigh Portland Cement.

Don't Buy Until You Get Their Prices.